RE: Invitation to Congressional Learning Trip to the United Nations, March 8-9, 2018

Dear Bronwyn Lance Chester,

On behalf of the United Nations Foundation, I would like to extend an invitation to you to participate in an upcoming learning trip to United Nations Headquarters in New York on Thursday, March 8 – Friday, March 9.

If you are unfamiliar, the UN Foundation is a public charity that links the UN's work with others around the world, mobilizing the energy and expertise of policymakers, businesses, and NGOs to help the UN tackle global challenges. As part of our mission, we organize several trips per year to UN Headquarters for Members of Congress and staff, providing an opportunity to learn about the UN's work firsthand and ask questions about a wide range of policy initiatives. Our upcoming March trip is specifically designed for congressional press/communications staff and will focus on the UN's top 2018 priorities, including a timely update from the UN's Department of Public Information.

The basic format of the trip is as follows: the delegation will take the train to New York on Thursday afternoon for a working dinner with a UN speaker. On Friday, we will participate in a series of meetings at the U.S. Mission to the UN and UN Headquarters, where we will be briefed by senior officials from an assortment of UN agencies such as the UN Refugee Agency, the World Food Programme, and the UN Department of Peacekeeping Operations. We will close the day with a working lunch with one last UN speaker, after which you will depart for DC on a 4pm train.

The UN Foundation will arrange all transportation and accommodations, including one night's hotel stay, and ensure they comply with all House/Senate ethics guidelines. If you are interested in participating, please let us know by Friday, Feb. 2.

As begin the new year, we hope you will take this opportunity to learn more about the how the United Nations is working to advance U.S. foreign policy, national security, and economic interests around the world.

Sincerely,

Peter Yeo
Vice President for Public Policy

UNITED NATIONS FOUNDATION
